

Associated Equipment presents ATEC® Portable LED Lights

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI – Associated Equipment Corporation (AEC) announces the launch of its new line of portable LED shop lights under the ATEC® brand.

The need to provide high quality shop equipment to the professional technician continues to grow and the new lighting products utilize the latest Lithium-Ion rechargeable battery technology for long life, better brightness and cordless for hands free use by the serious technician.

Model 12-1004 2.4 Watt COB LED Light	Model 12-1007 31+1 SMD LED Folding Light	Model 12-1009 Needle Light	Model 12-1008 24+5 LED Folding Light

Associated Equipment is committed to providing the latest technology for under-hood work and battery management technology and the ATEC® lighting product expands AEC's product offering to our customer base.

Associated Equipment Corporation designs and manufactures, in St. Louis, Missouri, a full line of battery charging, testing and portable power solutions, as well as booster cables and clamps, for automotive, aircraft and recreational vehicle use for a worldwide customer base. AEC designs, imports and quality assures product under ATEC® brand with unique packaging targeting the commercial and retail channel. AEC also designs and manufactures a full line of fume extractors, downdraft tables and ambient air cleaners for the welding industry under the Ace Industrial Products™ brand.